UPPER RIVER SHIP WAR ON, CARGO RATES 56 Cts. A PICUL

Conference Fails To Bring Companies Together

FARES ALSO LOW

Ichang-Chungking Deck Passage Only Five Dollars

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Ichang, July 15.—The arrangement for standardisation of freight rates made at a conference on rates and fares recently did not last long. Some of the smaller shipping companies fell away first and the stronger companies retorted by making still lower quotations for freights. A bale of cotton yarn can now be transported from Ichang to Chungking for Tls. 1.60, while ordinary cargo has been shipped as low as 56 tael cents per picul. This is as cheap or even cheaper than the junks can carry freight and augurs an active freight war until some agreement can be reached between the companies. Passengers fares are also down again and one steamer is reported to have left Ichang for Chungking recently, carrying passengers for less than $5 deck passage.

Steamers have reported that they have been fired on near Wanhsien, where there is fighting between Generals Liu Hsiang and Hsiung Keh-wu, but it is not believed that there is likely to be any invasion of Hupeh this year. There has, however, been some military activity recently and soldiers and artillery were to be seen on the move. It was reported that this was due to the fear that some of the men of General Chen Shu-fan, formerly Governor of Shensi, would violate Hupeh territory on their way to join hands with the Szechuenese. The troops were therefore being moved to guard the Hsingshan district.

During the last quarter the Customs authorities destroyed some 32 piculs of opium. This is not a great deal but it must be remembered that the opium season is only starting.

MUKDEN TRAIN SERVICE SADLY DISORGANISED

Long Waits, No Accomodations, Travelers Complain

BY JOSEF W. HALL
Staff Correspondent the China Press

Shanhaikwan, July 15.—The southern half of the Peking-Mukden line has procured enough rolling stock to double the service between Peking and Shanhaikwan. The bi-daily service has been made a daily service beginning today, and the early morning train from Shanhaikwan to Tangshan now runs as a slow passenger, with, however, first, second and third class cars and diner, through to Peking. All trains connect for Peitaiho Beach.

In spite of the fact that Chang Tso-lin carried away nine-tenths of the rolling stock of the line, traffic upon the southern (or western) half is infinitely superior to that between Mukden and Shanhaikwan, which has never been an area of hostilities. The train from Mukden which should have arrived, in Shanhaikwan last evening did not arrive until four clock this morning. Passengers were without sleeping-berth accommodation. Waits of hours on sidings and at station platforms seemingly caused by nothing but disorganization and inefficiency in trafic control were enforced upon the passengers.

The line beyond Shanhaikwan is running as an entirely separate entity. Chang Tso-lin's railway expert, Tong, has established a ticket and freight agency in Shanhaikwan separate from the regular railway station ticket office. There are rumors that the Japanese are secretly constructing a railway intended to parallel the Peking-Mukden, but aside from the matter of proof it would seem to the ordinary observer, that Chang Tso-lin having the latter line entirely in his unhampered power, and the Japanese (if the common belief be true) having in turn Chang Tso-lin it would be superfluous expenditure for them to construct a line designed to supplant the Peking Mukden line.

Republicans At Cork Send Envoys To Free State Headquarters

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 19.—An unconfirmed report is current in Dublin that the Republicans at Cork have sent delegates to the Free State headquarters in the south to discuss peace.

London, July 19.—It is believed in Dublin that the irregulars at Strand Barracks and King John's Castle at Limerick have surrendered but no definite information can be obtained. Three irregular outposts in the city have been evacuated. It is stated that the irregulars are deserting and joining the National forces. General Brennan is making arrangements to feed the homeless citizens. Supplies will be taken into the city in aeroplanes. The total casualties during the weekend were 15 killed and many wounded. The National forces are rounding up the irregulars north and west of Limerick, preparatory at a big offensive.

London, July 19.—The silence at Limerick has been broken by a despatch from a correspondent, received in Dublin via Ballinasloe, which confirms the reports of heavy fighting during the week-end.

The National troops have succeeded in surrounding the irregular strongholds of Strand barracks and King John Castle and their capitulation is momentarily expected.

London, July 19.—An Admiralty salvage steamer has arrived at Londonderry after successful operations on the hull of the Laurentic, which was mined during the war off the coast of Donegal. Divers during the first two months recovered bars of gold worth £1,000,000. The steamer is returning to work on the vessel.

LIGHTNER SEEN ON STREET; STILL ELUDES PURSUIT

Man Who Escaped From U.S. Jail Believed To Be Still In Shanghai

David Lightner alias D. L. Hibsman who made a sensational escape from the American prison early Wednesday with R. S. Boyd was still at large last night, though there was cause to believe that his hours of liberty are numbered.

Reports to the police indicate that Lightner was still in Shanghai as late as 11 o'clock on the day of the escape from jail as an individual whose appearance corresponded in all respects with Lightner's peculiarly marked physical appearance was seen in a ricsha on Nanking Road between Szechuen and Kiangse Roads shortly before 11 o'clock that morning.

The man in the ricsha was proceeding toward the Bund and as the hood of the ricsha was up and the man evidently had no hat his appearance attracted some notice. At that time no published descriptions of the fugitive had been issued. The person seen was short and stocky with a peculiarly shaped head and was shabbily dressed.

LETTER IS FOUND

Developments in connection with the jailbreak yesterday included the finding of a letter that Boyd, evidently believing that he would not be retaken, had left behind aboard the Yacht Elka on which he was recaptured seven hours after he had broken away from jail. The contents of this letter, whose text has not been given out consisted largely of an attack upon the United States Court and jail officials and closed saying, "When this is published Boyd will be far away." In his communication, which is written in the third person, Boyd complained of the treatment accorded him as a prisoner.

HANSEN ISSUES STATEMENT

Mr. H. Hansen, on whose yacht Boyd took refuge shortly after his escape, made a statement to the press yesterday in which he denied that he was a business associate of the jail breaker. Mr. Hansen also asked that it be stated that he knew nothing of Boyd's escape or his seeking refuge aboard the yacht Elka until detectives notified him that Boyd was arrested aboard the craft.

Mr. Hansen said: "Stories printed Wednesday give the impression that I was associated with Mr. Boyd in his business. I was merely an employe of the R. S. Boyd and Company, and acted as his shipping manager for about three months.

"Mr. Boyd was aboard my yacht, the Elka, on but one occasion, this being at the Easter holidays when we went on a trip up the river.

"Mr. Boyd could not be considered as having lived at my house, 454 Avenue Haig, as he only slept there on occasions when he came to my home to talk business and it was late and he was invited to remain overnight instead of going back to his rooms in the Ben Building.

"He sought refuge on my yacht without my knowledge and without my consent. The first I knew, either of his escape or his recapture, was when detectives notified me of the facts."

SCAFFOLDING FALLS; SCORES ESCAPE UNHURT

Bamboo Framework On New Hotel Parisien Collapses

Scores of workmen employed on the new building of the Hotel Parisien at the corner of Rue Montauban and Rue du Consulat and pedestrians who were passing by at the time had a narrow escape from serious injury shortly before five o'clock yesterday afternoon when a bamboo scaffolding on the Rue Montauban side of the building collapsed suddenly.

Luckily, there were no workmen on the scaffolding at the time, and pedestrians were quick enough to avoid being hit by the flying strips of bamboo. The damage was confined to the scaffolding itself and to several window panes in the vicinity which were broken.

In falling, the scaffolding which extended several stories up the new structure, caught on the electric light wires, and the major part of it held there until firemen of the French Concession department who were called to the scene could raise ladders and hack it away. Crowds of Chinese, attracted to the scene by the noise of the first break, watched the firemen at work.

The new building is on the site formerly occupied by the ill-fated Hotel de France. Several workmen employed in wrecking the Hotel de France were killed when the building collapsed last fall.

EDUCATION OF CHINESE AGAIN UNDER DEBATE IN COMMONS

Government Considering Boxer Fund Issue

U. S. ATTITUDE

Sir Walter de Frece, In Letter To "Times," Attacks Policy

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 20.—In the House of Commons today, replying to Mr. Robert Waddington, Mr. Cecil Harmsworth, the Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, said that he was not aware that any nation had remitted part of the Boxer Indemnity except the United States, who in 1908 remitted part of their share which the Chinese Government used for the education of Chinese students in America. As far as he was aware the resolution, passed by the United States Senate in August 1921, authorising the President to remit all or any payments still due, had not yet passed the House of Representatives and no information had been received with regard to the intentions of the United States Government in the matter.

Replying to Sir Walter de Frece, Mr. Harmsworth stated that the attitude to be adopted by His Majesty's Government towards the resumption of the Boxer Indemnity payments next December was at present being considered in its various aspects.

(Reuter's Special Service)

London, July 19.—Sir Walter De Frece in a letter published in the Times today emphasises the urgency of stimulating the selection of Chinese students for Great Britain and declares that it is vital to British commercial interests to have as many Chinese students as possible here as the student today is the commercial traveller or merchant of tomorrow.

Other Governments, notably the United States and France, recognise this but not a few Chinese students who recently arrived in England for study found openings nonexistent and went to Germany. He declares that this is not merely a matter for the educational authorities and he cannot understand why manufacturers and merchants do not realise that their indifference on the subject is playing into the hands of our rivals with regard to Far Eastern trade.

They ought not merely to press the Government to encourage students but to try by some form of organisation to see that they get all the technical training they want. The whole thing is a question of finance. It is said that the Prime Minister while not indisposed to give way in respect of cancellation of the Boxer Indemnity is not convinced that the public care. Sir Walter De Frece says that he cannot imagine that this is so.

FACTA CABINET IS CENSURED BY CHAMBER, QUITS

Anti Socialist Says He Will Raise Army To Oppose Reds

(Reuter's Service)

Rome, July 19.—The Cabinet has resigned following the adoption by the Chamber by 288 votes to 103 of a motion of censure of the Government for failing to secure domestic peace.

Rome, July 19.—The Facta Government are the victims of faction fighting between the Fascisti and the Socialists. Both sides accused the Government of leniency towards the other. Signor Facta declared that the responsibility for the disturbances rested on the political parties and not on the Government which was doing its best to enforce law and order, irrespective of persons. The gravest declaration was that of Signor Mussolini, the Fascisti leader, who stated that the Fascisti would refuse to participate in any future Government but warned the Chamber that if they favored Socialism he would become a rebel and lead a well-disciplined, numerous and courageous army. The value of this threat lies in the common belief that Signor Mussolini could muster 300,000 supporters, including many army officers.

Three Bands Blare Greeting To Denby

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, July 17.—Despite the heavy rain, Secretary Denby made his formal call on the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Minister of the Navy. At noon Mr. Denby paid his respects to President Li Yuan-hung following which he and the members of his party, including Mrs. Denby and the other ladies, were the guests of the President at a luncheon party at the Palace.

Secretary Denby's special train arrived at Chienmen last night at nine thirty and was welcomed by the blare of three bands and snappy salutes from the Chinese guard composed of the Peking Gendarmerie and troops. The American Legation Guard and its band gave the welcome due the Secretary of the Navy.

Dr. and Mrs. Schurman and other members of the American Legation joined with the official Chinese committee in greeting the Denby party, while a large group of the American community looked on. The long platform was hung with red lanterns, which with the white uniforms of the American and Chinese officers, gave a gay aspect to the reception.

After the initial ceremonies were over, automobiles carried the party to the Hotel Du Peking where Mr. Denby is to stay as the guest of the Chinese Government. The streets to the Hotel were lined with soldiers and a company of troops with their band were stationed in front of the Hotel.

Those who were waiting at Chienmen for the arrival of the special train, were treated to a Chinese reception. On the opposite platform, long lines of troops were at attention and three bands played simultaneously as the troop train of General Wang Hui-ching pulled in.

General Wang with a very military bearing inspected the guard, while the Americans on the other platform wondered how he could stand the ear splitting noise of the bands without puting his fingers in his ears. As soon as his formalities were over, General Wang joined the Chinese committee of welcome for Mr. Denby.

General Wang Hui-chung is the Commander of the Peking police as well as all the troops which make up the defense force of the Capital. Lately he was appointed Defense Commissioner for Jehol and was just returning from there last night.

Russia's Reply To Genoa Note On "The Interests Of Private Individuals

The following is the reply presented by the Russian Delegation at Genoa to the Allied Memorandum of May 2 on "The Interests of Private Individual."

Clause 7 begins with a fine preamble, recognising the sovereign right of Russia to organise as she thinks fit within her territory her system of property, her economic system, and her Government; but the text of the clause itself is in flagrant contradiction with its preamble. The sovereignty of the Russian State becomes the plaything of chance. It can be defeated by the decisions of a mixed court of arbitration composed of four foreigners and one Russian, which will decide in the last instance whether the interests of foreigners are to be subject to restoration, restitution, or compensation.

On this subject the Russian Delegation must call attention to the fact that in the trial of disputes of this kind the specific disagreements will inevitably end by bringing into opposition two forms of property, whose antagonism assumes today for the first time in history a real and practical character. In such circumstances there can be no question of an impartial super-arbiter. And according to the sense of Clause 7 the part of super-arbiter would inevitably be filled by the other interested party, a thing which would beyond a doubt lead to the intervention of foreigners in the domestic affairs of Russia, and would be tantamount to an abolition in practice of the inviolability recognised at the beginning of Clause 7, of the system of property existing in Russia.

Furthermore, the Russian Delegation considers that Clause 7 has no practical character. Its presence in the Memorandum of May 2 can only be explained as a result of the desire to satisfy certain class or party feelings and not by any means as the result of an adequate knowledge of the state of affairs in Russia. To say nothing of the perpetual conflicts to which this clause would give rise between the latter and the foreign Powers, Clause 7, far from creating between the Soviet regime and the capitalist regime that mutual tolerance which is the condition of fruitful collaboration, would tend only to poison their relations. Foreigners who went into Russia, not in consequence of a friendly agreement with the Russian Government to work under the protection of Russian laws, but in virtue of the decisions of a mixed court of arbitration, would soon feel the general hostility toward them.

The Russian Government, on its part, in order to enable the former owners of nationalised property to apply their technical knowledge and, their capital to the economic revival of Russia for their own advantage, has recognised in their favor a preferential right in every case where the former property is to be granted a concession, whether under the form of a lease, a mixed company formed by the State and the foreign capital, or under any other form providing for the participation of foreigners.

The Russian Delegation further observes that the interested States, while reserving all their solicitude for a small group of foreign capitalists and manifesting an inexplicable doctrinaire intransigeance, have sacrificed a large number of foreign capitalists desirous of profiting by the facilities and guarantees offered them by the Russian Government to return and work in Russia, and they have sacrificed as well as the interests of a multitude of small holders of Russian bonds and small foreign proprietors, whose property has been nationalised or sequestrated, and whom the Russian Government had intended to include among those the justice and merit of whose claims it recognised. The Russian delegation cannot refrain from expressing its surprise that Powers like France, in which are found the majority of the small holders of Russian bonds, should have insisted most upon the restitution of property, thus subordinating the interests of the small holders of Russian bonds to those of certain groups who demand this restitution of property.

The Russian Government sent its representatives to the conference of Genoa in the hope of achieving an agreement with the other States, which without affecting the social and political system established as a result of the revolution and of the intervention victoriously repulsed, would bring about not an aggravation but an improvement of the economic and financial situation of Russia, and at the same time pave the way to an improvement of the economic situation of Europe.

"But this plan presupposed that the Foreign Powers who organised the armed intervention in Russia would forbear to employ toward Russia the language of a victor to the vanquished, Russia not having been vanquished. The only language which could have led to a common agreement was that which States adopt toward each other when negotiating upon a footing of equality.

Russia is still prepared, in order to assure the success of the agreement, to consent to important concessions to the foreign Powers, but upon this absolute condition, that equivalent concessions in favor of the Russian people shall be made by the other contracting party. The popular masses of Russia could not accept an agreement in which concessions were not balanced by real advantages.

Another outcome, and one suggested by the difficulties of the situation, would be the reciprocal cancellation of the claims and counter-claims arising out of the past between Russia and the other Powers. But in this case likewise the Russian Government is determined to respect the interests of the small bondholders.

If, nevertheless, the Powers desire to enter into the solution of the financial issues between themselves and Russia, inasmuch as this question demands a deeper study of the nature and extent of the claims of the credits that could be placed at her disposal, this task might be entrusted to a mixed commission of experts appointed by the conference, whose work should begin at a date and in a place to be determined by mutual agreement.

The Russian delegation observes that the great obstacle which has, up to the present time, impeded the labors of the conference is the fact that the idea of reciprocity expressed above is not yet sufficiently shared by all the Powers. But the Russian delegation cannot refrain from emphasising the fact that the negotiations which have taken place have opened the way to a rapprochement between Soviet Russia and the other Powers. The Russian delegation is of the opinion that the disagreements which have arisen in the course of the solution of the financial issues between Russia and the other Powers ought not to constitute an obstacle to the solution of other problems, which can and ought to be solved here at Genoa —problems interesting all countries—and especially the problems involved in the economic reconstruction of Europe and of Russia, and the consolidation of peace. Russia came to the conference with a conciliatory intention, and she still hopes that her efforts in this direction will be crowned with success.

These records are the very foundation of your business. Without them it would come to a standstill.

You should find out what fire hazards exist in and around your building and what you can do to protect yourself against them. Failure to do so may mean disaster.

The Safe-Cabinet is the only type of safe that brings its contents undamaged through the most severe fires.

CHAPEI BODIES PLANNING TO BUY SERVICE PLANTS

Purchase Of Electricity And Water Works As Well As Trams Planned

The Kuo Wen News Agency reports that the various public bodies in Chapei held a meeting Wednesday at the Chapei Self-Government Preparatory Association to discuss the taking over of the administration of the Chapei Electricity and Water Works. Representatives from the Chapei Self-Government Preparatory Association, the Chapei Merchants' Association and 22 other organisations as well as a number of landlords and house owners, were present.

Zee Zien-ling, who was in the chair, reported on what had already been done regarding the taking over of the Chapei Electricity and Water Works. He said that at the last meeting held to discuss the matter Loh Pak-hung made a suggestion that tramways be introduced in Chapei. The suggestion was carefully discussed at that meeting and the following resolutions were passed:

(1) That the merchants take charge of the water works.

(2) That the Chapei merchants take charge also of the electricity works.

(3) That the merchants introduce tramways in Chapei.

These resolutions, he said, were now brought before them for discussion. The matter of water supply was one of utmost importance to the residents in Chapei, who had experienced much inconvenience. The Preparatory committee, he declared, were of the opinion that the water works should be dealt with first.

It has been estimated that $1,250,000 would be required for the purchase of land, machinery, the construction of filter beds etc. As regards electricity, which at present was being supplied by the S. M. C. under the agreement, which still had two years more to go the chairman said it would be better to renew the agreement than to start an electricity plant of their own in Chapei.

The estimated cost of such a plant would be about $1,000,000. Speaking on the proposed introduction of tramways, the chairman said that certain individuals had made plans for this last year and it was estimated that $750,000 would be required for this purpose.

In conclusion the chairman said: "The estimated total expenditure required for the three undertakings would be in the neighborhood of $3,000,000, of which $2,000,000 could be raised at present to deal with the water works and tramways."

Loh Pak-hung, the manager of the Nantao Tramway Company, made a report on the past and present condition of the Nantao tramways. He stated that the tramway company in Nantao encountered many difficulties in the beginning, but these were all overcome through the firmness of the management. At present the company is becoming quite prosperous.

The election of officers then took place. Sung Lien-faung, See Zien-ling and Loh Pak-hung were elected members of the Preparatory Committee, Dzung Ping-chien and Kau Voong Sz were appointed treasurers, Zien Kwei-san and Tseu Ching-zien inspecting officers.

It was also decided to fix the capital at $3,000,000 divided into 30,000 shares of $10 each. Only $2,000,000 will be required at present and this amount must be subscribed within three months.

Wu May Take His Troops Into Kiangsi

(Independent News Service)

Hankow, July 16.—General Wu Pei-fu is determined to lead two divisions of troops under General Chin Yun-... and General Hu Ching-yi, to drive General Li Lieh-chun's expeditionary forces out of Kiangsi, and will probably come to Hankow from Loyangfu on July 20, when he will proceed to Nanchang as soon as transportation of troops can be arranged.

General Wu arrived at this decision when he was assured by Chen Chiung-ming who urges General Wu to exterminate Dr. Sun Yat-sen's radical militarism now prolonged under General Li Lieh-chun, now that they have already lost their ground in south China.

General Tsai Chen-hsun of Nanchang has sent an emissary to Wuchang to conclude a mutual protection agreement with General Hsiao Yao-nan, Tuchun of Hupeh. The articles of the covenant includs defense plans whereby Kiangsi and Hupeh provinces will take joint action to defend themselves in the event of attack coming from outside to either province.

Hupeh is to supply Kiangsi with ammunitions, while Kiangsi in return shall supply Hupeh with rice to feed the troops.

Rail Conference In Vladivostok

(Dalta News Agency)

Harbin, July 15.—A conference of the representatives of the Chinese Eastern Railway and the Ussuri Railway will soon be held in Vladivostok. It will discuss questions that were not decided upon at a previous conference held in August last, and also issues of the conference at Changchun.

The Vladivostok business circles and the Inter-Allied Technical Board suppose that the coming conference has to be postponed until the restoration of the authority of Far Eastern Republic in the Maritime Province, as the downfall of Merkuloff's government will naturally follow the withdrawal of Japanese troops. This supposition is based on the fact that if the conference is held, its decisions cannot be obligatory on the future lawful government. The foreigners think that the decisions reached at the Changchun conference must be revised.

The above views will be brought up before the next session of the Chinese Eastern Railway administration. There are reasons to suppose that the Chinese members of the administration will not agree with many of the Changchun conference's decisions.

ANNAPOLIS MEN ARE SPEAKERS AT ROTARY TIFFIN

Members Of Denby Party Are Guests At Weekly Meeting Of Commercial Body

Shanghai Rotarians were hosts yesterday to members of the Denby party of American naval men that arrived on the U.S. Transport Henderson and in the course of the tiffin meeting, which was held at the Union Club, addresses were made by three of the visitors. Those who spoke were Major General George Barnett, who commanded the United States Marine Corps during the war, President W. H. Staten of the Baltimore Steamship company and Eugene Carroll, Vice President of the Butte, Montana Water Company, all three members of the class of 1881 of the Annapolis Naval Academy.

Major General Barnett, after telling how the Class decided to hold its reunion at Tokio and related incidents of the trip which started at Norfolk on May 20 with the Secretary of the United States Navy, Edwin S. Denby, on the transport Henderson, said that the Japan he noted today is not the Japan of old.

"Something has happened in the world's affairs to make Japan look different than it did when I was there before," said the former commander of the Marines. "It was always my personal opinion that the Japanese took themselves too seriously and although I had been in Japan many times before, I cannot remember that I ever saw a Japanese laugh. The Japanese nation today is laughing, the Japanese people are smiling and are pleasant. Our welcome was not a welcome ordered by a Government."

The speaker said that thousands of Japanese children, each with an American and a Japanese flag, lined the streets approaching the locality where Secretary Denby planted a tree in honor of Commodore Perry.

"There was happiness in the faces of those children," he said, "and this is something which was very unusual to me."

General Barnett said he believed that the trip of the Henderson would result in mutual understanding between the people of America and those of Japan and China.

Mr. Staten and Mr. Carroll made humorous talks, the latter describing the Class of 1881 as an unusual group of men who have been two months in the Orient and have done nothing for which their government must apologize. The trip has been a succession of pleasures, he told the Rotarians.

In describing the class he said that when its members were graduated, 60 percent of the men went to work and the other 40 percent joined the Navy. Forty of the 60 living members of the class attended the reunion in Washington a year ago, he said.

PEKING MUSEUM IS NOW OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 16.—The Library and the Museum of the Geological Survey of China, which is located at No. 3 Feng Sheng Hutung, Peking West, will be open for public exhibition from July 19 to July 25 instant, from 9 a.m. to noon. Admission will be free and all interested are cordially invited.

Correspondents were shown over the premises yesterday, and the Survey will be officially opened by President Li on the 17th instant at 4 p.m.

The beginnings of a Chinese national geological survey date back to the revolution, when Mr. H. C. Chang, now Acting Director of the Survey, was appointed by the Provisional Government at Nanking to be chief of the section of geology in the Department of Mines under the Board of Commerce and Industry. In the following year Mr. Chang published the program for a systematic geological survey of the country in the proceedings of the Geographical Society of China. After the retirement of Dr. Sun Yat-sen the section of geology and the Bureau of Mines came under the leadership of Dr. V. K. Ting who is still a Chief Director of the Survey.

The teachers of the Geological School are mostly officials of the Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce who volunteered to carry on this teaching for three years without additional salaries. Dr. J. G. Anderson, who in 1914 was engaged by the Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce as Mining Adviser, has from the very outset worked in close cooperation with the Survey and has from the beginning of the museum acted as its curator. In 1920 Dr. A. W. Grabau, formerly professor of palaeontology at Columbia University, New York, was engaged as palaeontologist of the Survey, and he has made considerable progress in describing the early marine fauna, the knowledge of which is of paramount importance for interpretation of the coal deposits of China, as well as for unravelling the complicated structure of the country.

The Staff of the Survey consists of three Directors, sixteen field geologists, one assistant in palaeontology, one assistant keeper of the museum, two librarians, three artists, one typist and a manager of miscellaneous affairs. The pupils are selected from among the graduates of the middle schools and instead of the usual university courses they receive intensive training for three years in branches necessary to a field geojogist. In addition to pure and applied geology, including mineralogy, petrology and palaeontology, the curriculum includes chemistry, physics, geodetic and topographic surveying, mining methods, the elements of metallurgy, etc.

INSURANCE MAN CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Former Agent of Sun Life Under Arrest At Victoria

On application of Mr. K. E. Newman in the British Police Court yesterday, Magistrate G. W. King heard the evidence of Mr. Lancelot Ashcroft, assistant secretary of the Sun Life Insurance Company of Canada in the charges brought by Mr. W. D. McCallum, manager of the company, against Mr. Stephen Power, formerly general agent of the company at Peking and Tientsin.

Mr. Power has been arrested at Victoria, B. C. on charges of embezzlement by a servant and larceny by a servant. Under the Fugitive Offenders' Act, it is necessary for a prima facie case to be made out here before Power can be brought back. In addition to Mr. Ashcroft, a Chinese clerk from Peking will be here shortly to give evidence in the case.

The principal charges against Power, Mr. Newman stated were divided into two groups, one under section 17 (IA) of the Larceny Act of 1916 and section IB. The first one was embezzlement by a servant and the second, larceny by a servant. The accused, it is alleged, had taken $2,645.50 which was forwarded from the Shanghai office to Peking for the purpose of handing over to an assured of the Company by way of loan on his policy. In this particular instance the assured asked for the full amount to which he was entitled on his policy, and the Company, as a result of the embezzlement, was obliged to pay the money twice.

The second division comprised four premiums amounting to Tls. 783.50, Tls. 736.50, $282.25 and $273, due on policies from the assured to the Company which were paid to Power and not accounted for. Power, Mr. Newman said, had left China and absconded.

Lancelot Ashcroft, resident secretary of the Sun Life Insurance Company of Canada in North China, in his testimony substantiated the remarks made by Mr. Newman. He said that Power was under agreement with the Company and received a salary plus a commission and an allowance during the time he remained at Peking. Power's duties were to receive the premiums from the assured at Tientsin and Peking and to send them by draft to the Shanghai office after deducting his salary, commission and allowance.

Mr. Ashcroft produced in Court a list of renewals and the amounts alleged to be defalcated by Power. On May 5th last, Power had written to the Company stating that a certain policy holder desired to secure a loan of $2,645.50 against his policy and requesting the Shanghai office to send the money to him. A credit was accordingly opened in the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank at Peking in favor of Power and this amount was drawn out but not paid to the insured, witness said.

SPEED TESTS PROPOSED FOR LOCAL TYPISTS

A proposal to hold a competition among Shanghai typists to set a local speed record has been advanced by Mr. Hugh Farmer, principal of the Remington Typewriter School. Mr. Farmer writes:

"The rules governing the World"s International Amateur Typewriting Championship, which is held by Miss Marion C. Waner with a record of 141.5 words per minute gross and 127 words per minute net, require that competitors shall type from unfamiliar matter for half an hour, ten words being deducted for each error from the total number of words typed, but I leave it to local typists to decide whether or not these rules shall apply to a local record.

"I shall be very glad to place the school premises at the disposal of those interested for the purpose of meetings to decide what course should be adopted and also for holding the tests. Should the suggestion meet with the necessary support, I shall be glad to receive names and addresses and later advertise a time for a preliminary meeting to elect officials and arrange other details."

SHANGHAI NINE PLAY FLAGSHIP FOR CHARITY

Tomorrow's And Sunday's Games For Benefit Of Destitute

PLAY HENDERSON TODAY

Transport Nine To Give Local Team Workout At 5 O'Clock

The Shanghai baseball nine will play for charity this week end. A special program has been arrang d by wireless with the flagship Huron, for games tomorrow and on Sunday, for a special admission price of $1.00 for all spectators, members as well, the proceeds to be donated to the American Relief Committee of the American Association.

The benefit games were arranged after a special meeting of the relief committee of the American Association held at the Union Club Wednesday evening, at which every local American organisation was represented. The recipients of the proceeds of the gates will be those stranded Americans who are worthy of assistance.

The meeting was called by the President of the American association on the recommendation of a special committee appointed by the association to investigate the condition of Americans on "the Beach" in Shanghai, and to consider ways and means for their relief. The benefit ball games are figured to raise a considerable sum toward the fund needed for effective relief work.

It has been estimated that at least $5,000 a year will be necessary for proper relief of stranded Americans here. The plan for financing the fund was that each organisation represented on the committee should make a yearly appropriation. Aside from the Baseball club, the following organisations are represented in the movement: The American Association, The American Consulate General, The American Chamber of Commerce, The American Legion, The American Community Church, The American University Club, The Navy, Y.M.C.A., The American Club, The American Red Cross, The Columbia Country Club. It is also hoped that the Shanghai Race Club will grant a yearly sum. The disbursement of the funds is to be undertaken by the American Red Cross which will work in close conjunction with the American Consulate.

The flagship, which is now enroute Shanghai from the North has been wirelessed of the plans for the benefit games, and, inasmuch as their players expected to play the week end games here in any event, it is certain that their baseball officer will come into the scheme with everything he has. The Huron band is booked for one of the bleachers, with the Henderson musicians occupying the other side of the stands. Secretary of the Navy Edwin S. Denby will throw the first ball of Saturday's game. Admiral Joseph Strauss, commander-in-chief of the Asiatic Fleet and Mr. Edwin S. Cunningham, American Consul General will escort the Cabinet member to the pitchers box.

This afternoon the local nine meets up with the team from the Henderson, commencing at 5 p.m. The Henderson have a good team, and should give Gallop's men a fine workout for the week end games. The only dope available on the Henderson outfit is their recent set-to with the Yokohama Cricket and Athletic Country Club nine to which they lost by a wide score, but then the sailors had not been playing the game, and the Y. C. and A. C. always put out a strong lineup, so that it is safe to predict that the game today will be one worth watching.

JAPANESE NINE LOSES ON SUNDAY TO 15TH INFANTRY

Big Rally In Eighth Inning Puts Army Men On Long End Of Score

Tientsin, July 17.—Slamming out six hits in the eighth inning after being down one run to nothing, the 15th Infantry beat the Japanese Sunday afternoon, 5 to 1.

Madge, hurling for the Army, struck out 10 and allowed only two safeties. Sawa fanned seven and was mauled for nine singles.

The Japanese scored on the only error of the Army, a tricky grounder getting between Miller's legs. After that they never came within reaching distance of the plate.

In spite of three scattered hits blank score until, disaster in the eighth. Cunningham, batting in place of McMunn, clouted one. Rattan hit. McChrystal did like wise. Dusty Miller figured he was due for a hit and put another one through the infield. Thereupon Mister Madge pasted one far away towards Tsinanfu for three bases He scored on Moore's safety.

Oberkolfer kept his eye glued to the ball so closely that he stopped a hot liner with his eyebrow, the ball taking a part of the skin off. It is a nasty cut. Obie played a good game on the first sack, being responsible for 12 putouts and three assists.

Moore stole two bases.

The score by innings was:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Japanese	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	1

NOW IS THE SEASON OF COLIC AND CHILLS

Use Baby's Own Tablets Against These Ills.

Climatic conditions in the Far East are extremely hard on little ones, especially at this time of the year. Sudden changes of temperature, damp heat, the chill which follows hot close days, all tend to weaken and predispose to sudden attacks of illness.

As a safeguard for their children against fever, colic, diarrhoea, croup and chills careful parents should keep Baby's Own Tablets ready in the house. These Tablets also dispel infantile indigestion and constipation, allay teething pains, expel worms and quickly bring restful sleep in a perfectly natural way. They are guaranteed absolutely pure and harmless.

GINK MEMBER OF EXCLUSIVE CLUB

Roughtown Country Club Limited To Million Golfers

Dear Bird—

Now is the time for all good golfers to come to the party. As one of the most important duffers in America, I must protest against Gink Fowler's claim that he once went around the Van Courtland links in seventeen, using a flat-iron for a golf ball.

Yours microscopic-ly,
Abner Hill,
Medford.

Gink used no ordinary golf implements. He was so powerful that Congress had to pass legislation against him to prevent the champ from bombarding friendly countries with sliced putts.

Gink was the first man in the world to start a golf match with a putt.

After he putted on to the green, he would then commence his heavy hauling and driving.

He once made a putt that ran around Massachusetts like pigs in clover, ricocheted from a meridian and finally entered another tournament in Siberia. Thus, Gink won two contests with one swat. The ball was finally discovered in another club member's pocket, for no matter how far you drove in the Roughtown links, the ball always wound up in a friend's collection of trophies.

Roughtown was so tough that Gink's grandmother wore a trench helmet for a boudoir cap.

Mr. Hill would have lasted in Roughtown about as long as an ice cream cone at a picnic.

Gink once chopped a stymie into a nest of ripe wolves on the home green. The Glutt was using the green that day and protested against the diabolical manner in which Gink bunkered his creditors.

So they both decided to settle the world's championship right there. It was a golf match around the world, using manholes, oil wells and shell holes for cups, quarries, oceans and the Palisades for hazards and battlefields for home greens.

Gink putted off Arizona right into the Gikwar of Bromo's Persian palace. The Gik invited Gink to dinner. The Glutt's first slice skimmed into China.

Political students will easily see that Gink was using the monarchical form of golf while the Glutt employed the republican interpretation.

The future of golf ninged on this match and the hinges were getting rusty.

Good Four Chukker Polo Match Ends In 3-3 Score

PLAY AGAIN SATURDAY

Dallas' And McMichael's Teams To Play Third Match For Bydand Cup

Very good polo marked the second day of play for the Bydand Challenge Cup yesterday on the Shanghai Polo Club field. There were many flashes of excellent polo, in spite of the fact that for most part the play was little above ordinary interest. McMichael's team playing in colors met Hickling's four in white, and the teams finished their four-chukker play at a score of 3-all.

The play started off with the first chukker scoreless. Pollock counted one goal for McMichael's side in the next period, and Springfield followed closely with an equaliser. The third chukker tied the teams again at 2-all. Heard counted for the Whites or "D" team with a beautiful play up to the goal and a nice drive

JAPANESE ASK TO KEEP ELEVEN TSINGTAO HOUSES

Chinese Delegates On Commission "Can't See It"

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, July 17.—At the Wai-shiaopu today, the 5th meeting of the First Section of the Sino-Japanese Joint Commission was held with Mr. Obata, Dr. Akiyama and Mr. Debuchi, representing Japan, and Dr. C. T. Wang, Mr. Tang Tsai-chang, and Mr. Hsu Tung-pan, representing China, present.

At the meeting, in the first place the Japanese commissioners made a detailed explanation as to the properties to be reserved for the use of the Japanese Consulate General.

The Chinese commissioners, however, expressed views quite different from those by the Japanese commissioners with regard to the nature of public properties and government offices to be reserved by Japan, the discussion lasting three hours.

It was finally decided that, while the meteorological Station at Tsingtao is not to be considered as being in the compass of the Japanese Consulate General, with regard to the management and maintenance of the Station a separate discussion is to be conducted at the meeting of the sub-committee.

The Japanese commissioners also made an explanation of the reason for the public properties to be reserved for the welfare of the Japanese residents at large of Tsingtao. In this connection the Chinese commissioners decided to express their views at the next meeting.

Members of a sub-committee to deliberate upon public properties have been appointed as follows. Mr. Mori, Japanese Consul-General at Tsinan, and two officials, representing Japan, and Mr. Yang Yu-hung and six officials representing China.

Public properties, which Japan insists on reserving for the use of the Japanese Consulate General are the official residence of the Commander of the Japanese Garrison at Tsingtao and eleven government buildings.

for the point. McMichael followed soon afterwards with a sensational forward drive from the left side boards fifty feet away for a perfect center bringing the socre to 2-2. In the last period McMichael scored again for "A" side after some fast play, and Heard equalised immediately.

The "A" side played as follows:

McMichael, Fearon, Pollock, Davis.

The "D" side was:

Hickling, Paterson, Springfield, Heard.

The match yesterday was a fairly even event. The two teams however with their three goals each assumed stronger positions for the final honors in the tournament. The play is to be decided on the total number of goals scored, after each team has met each other of the four entered. It is too early yet for any team to stand out as a possible winner.

For Saturday Dallas' team has been selected to meet McMichaels', leaving Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of next week for the final matches of the tournament. The play Saturday will commence at 5:45 o'clock.

The following teams are in the tournament:

"A"—McMichael, Fearon, Pollock, Davis.

"C"—Geo. Dallas, Gibbings, Wilson, A. N. Dallas.

Panic In Vienna Over Bread Prices

(Reuter's Service)

Vienna, July 19.—The nervousness of the population is strikingly illustrated by a panic today, which followed a newspaper announcement of an increase in the price of bread. A constantly growing procession, headed by red flags, marched to the Parliament House. Business was speedily at a standstill, shops were shut up and hotels and banks barricaded. Troops were turned out and surrounded the Parliament House, preventing the approach of the crowds who subsequently dispersed without a casualty.

Oil Envoys Meet Russian Officials

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, July 19.—The Temps' correspondent at the Hague says that a meeting of representatives of foreign companies with old interests in Russia, convoked by the Royal Dutch Company, was held yesterday but the press were not informed until the meeting was over.

It is rumored that an agreement was concluded by the British, French, Belgian and Dutch representatives but there was probably only an exchange of views.

This would be in regard to the attitude to be adopted in the event of the resumption of activity in Russia in view of the necessity of all companies taking a common line, particularly as regards mutual respect of the rights of former owners in the event of granting of new concessions in compensation for damages.

Tokio Paper Hopes China Will Reform Postoffice Service

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, July 20.—Regarding the withdrawal of Japanese post-offices in China, the Jiji today says:

"The fact that Japan is going to take the lead in withdrawing her post-offices in China is indicative of her special good will towards China and at the same time is based on her purport of respecting the spirit of the declaration reached at the Washington Conference. Japan, in particular, has much concern in the withdrawal of her post-offices. When, therefore, negotiations will be opened in this connection, we cannot help hoping that the Chinese authorities concerned will participate in the negotiations with full sincerity. As this question is of business-like nature, pure and simple, and not of diplomatic one, it goes without saying that the parties concerned of both countries should be ready to deal with all matters relating to the question on the instant with an open mind.

"Moreover, in consideration of the fact that the reason why the Powers agreed at the Washington Conference to withdraw their respective post-offices in China is due to the tendency of the times completely to keep China in countenance as an independent country, it is devotedly to be hoped that the Chinese authorities concerned will hereafter exert themselves more than ever for the reform of China's post-office business so that they may not act contrary to the good will shown them by the Powers."

GENERAL WANG IN CAPITAL TO THWART CHIHLI

Jehol Leader Said To Have Been Summoned By President

(China Press Correspondence)

Lwanchow, July 16.—General Wang Hwai-ching, the newly appointed High Inspecting Commissioner of the Mongolian Border, who but recently proceeded from Peking to Jehol, arrived here last night with an escort of three companies of soldiers of the 13th Division, besides his bodyguard, having come down the Lwan River from Jehol by small boat. He was provided a special train by the Peking-Mukden Railway, which train left for Peking direct, between the slow train and the express from Shanghaikwan, this morning.

General Wang's appearance in Lwanchow aboard a small fleet of river scows seems to have been quite unexpected. The 15th Division, one brigade of which, under Colonel Gwo, is stationed here, hastened to prepare for him all the honors naturally falling to the lot of a new Supertuchun, among other things erecting in his honor a special mat-shed on the station platform. I gathered from his escort that his return to Peking is due to the President's fears for the safety and order of the capital, particularly in view of the inclination of the remainder of General Wang's Thirteenth Division to emulate the example of the Twenty-third in Paotingfu and mutiny to procure pay.

It is also intimated in some quarters that Wang would not be so concerned over such a possibility if he were not fearful that the Chihli leaders would immediately place their own troops in the capital, which base Wang desires to retain as exclusively his own, President Li Yuan-hung as well has no desire, it is said, to see Chihli troops quartered in the capital.

The soldiers from Jehol made light of the recent mutiny in that place, affirming that it has nothing whatever to do with General Wang's return. The affair, they stated, was very insignificant, only about forty men having broken discipline. These have been punished.

The mutinies at various places seem to have had some effect in bringing pay to the Chihli army. The troops at Chinwangtao and Lwanchow under General Sun and Colonel Gwo, numbering a Mixed Brigade and a Brigade, have just received a month's pay (six dollars per man with mess charge deducted) and in addition have succeeded in "borrowing" half a month's pay upon their back salaries.

The products turned out will be Cubes, granulated, and all grades of soft whites and yellows.

FLOATING MINE EXPLODES, CANTON RUNS TO COVER

Explosion Near Dr. Sun's Flagship; Gen. Chen Blamed

(China Press Correspondence)

Canton, July 19.—With a roar that shook the city and caused hundreds to prepare for flight, fearing another bombardment, a floating mine exploded today just as it was nearing the moorings of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's flagship, the Yung Feng. Half a hundred feet more and that ship must have been blown to pieces.

It was not until sailors from the Helena came ashore that the narrow escape of Dr. Sun's cruiser was learned. No doubt was raised that the mine was launched by some of General Chen Chiung-ming's officers and that the destruction of the Yung Feng, with all on board, but especially Dr. Sun and his officers, was the object.

What caused the mine, presumably one of the contact variety, to explode before reaching its goal is not known, although the theory of navy men is that a water-soaked log, floating just below the surface of the water may have struck the detonating apparatus with sufficient force to jar it into action.

So powerful was the explosion that a pillar of water many feet in height was thrown into the air, and pieces of the metal body of the mine are reported to have been picked up half a mile from the scene of the explosion.

At first it was believed that the U. S. S. Helena had been damaged as the ship was anchored near that of Dr. Sun. Then came the report that the Yung Feng had been torpedoed, but both vessels were found by those who rushed to The Bund to be floating serenely on the Pearl River.

Owing to the great danger to foreign ships that such mines provide, the matter is to be taken up strongly by the Consular Body which it is understood has already framed a protest to be sent, not only to Chen Chiung-ming, but Dr. Sun as well, asking that floating mines be barred in the Southern war game.

Broadcast warnings to shipping will also be circulated as it is feared that this was not the only mine loosed against Dr. Sun's flagship. If there were others, mariners say, there is no telling where they will fetch up owing to the peculiar tide swirls of the Canton delta.

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, July 19.—This morning a floating mine exploded in front of Shameen near the Chinese man-of-war Yung Feng, with Dr. Sun Yat-sen aboard, and an American warship, but there is no damage done. This incident, however, is coming into the ken of the Consular Body.

KIANGSI GENERAL ISSUES CHITS TO PAY SOLDIERS

Shroffs, However, Have Hard Time Making Collections

(China Press Correspondence)

Nanchang, July 15.—The Nanchang Chamber of Commerce is quite stubbornly refusing to agree with General Tsai over a little matter of a million dollars a month which General Tsai says he must have to keep the Kiangsi military establishment well oiled and pacified. The Chamber insists that half this amount is plenty for the army. The General has a scant 30,000 and so far the Chamber has the best of the argument.

Instead of meeting his demands they have been offering suggestions of various methods which the General might use, but he has spurned them all and thought of a little scheme of his own.

It is a translation of the chit idea into wenli, and if it works at 100 percent will produce $1,370,000. Chits have been sent out calling for loans as follows: Chao Kan-ching and Fu Shao-ting agents for Standard Oil and Asiatic Petroleum respectively, and the I Chan Jen bank, $20,000 each; The money shops of Chao Fuchoo, $100,000; Chen Kan-ting and Pao Chih-feng, leading gentry, $40,000 each and the Shen Ho Lung Bank $30,000.

The Salt Merchants Association is asked for $1,100,000.

Word of the coming of these chits preceded their delivery in several cases and most of the intended recipients were out of the city by the time the messengers arrived. Those who have remained sent most of their money and movable securities out of city several weeks ago.

It is announced that boats commandeered by troops will now be released to remove the rice crop and that the farmers will be protected at this time. Such unadulterated altruism will be a great blessing to country producer and city consumer and incidentally will net a tax to the military of $1.50 a picul, an income item which cannot well be overlooked at such at time as this when collections elsewhere are proving so difficult.

Airplanes Frighten Northern Troops

(China Press Correspondence)

Nanchang, July 16.—According to a high military official the northern forces plan a general advance to take place on Tuesday and to continue until the Southerners are driven from the province. The progress made by this drive by the 21st will determine whether Wu Pei-fu will come to take charge in person or not.

No serious situation is expected at Nanchang for several days, but even the most optimistic of the Northern party seem to be very doubtful of the outcome. The Northern forces are having to work against the whole population they are poorly equipped and have seen very little active service.

It is probable that the Southerners are not much better off, but they are reported to be using airplanes which gives them a great psychological advantage, at least and up to date they have been very sucessful in scaring the Northerners off.

MUNICIPAL NOTIFICATION
No. 3021

(Translation)
RICE PROFITEERING.

From investigations made by the Council into the causes contributing to the present abnormally high price of rice, it appears that, in their greed for personal gain and unmindful of the hardships and suffering caused to poor people, certain persons have accumulated stocks of rice, which they are withholding from the market, creating a temporary shortage of supplies, and forcing up the price to an unwarranted figure.

Rice is the staple food of the Chinese people, and profiteering or speculating in the food of the people is an offence against the law, and severely punishable.

Notice is accordingly given that any persons profiteering in rice, whether by the withholding of stocks or by any other means, are liable to prosecution with severe penalties on conviction, and with confiscation of their stocks.

The public is earnestly requested to report any cases of rice profiteering that may come to its knowledge. Such reports should be in writing, addressed to the Commissioner of Police, Central Police Station, Foochow Road, and should give as full particulars as possible, so as to facilitate prosecution against the concerned.

By Order,
N. O. LIDDELL,
Secretary and Commissioner General.

Tokio Prepares to Close Postoffices

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, July 19.—According to the authorities concerned, the Imperial Government of Japan, having regard to the question of the withdrawal of foreign post-offices in China, have already decided to accelerate negotiations with the Chinese Government, with a view to putting in force the withdrawal of Japanese post-offices by the day specified in the Shantung Treaty.

Inasmuch as negotiating commissioners have been unofficially appointed, it is expected that they will leave here for Peking on July 23.

In short, the question of withdrawing Japanese post-offices in China involves many technical items to be taken into consideration from the view-point of interests not only of Japan and China but also of the development of world's communication services. Such being the case, full arrangements are to be made without reserve between the authorities of Japan and China.

As negotiating commissioners in this connection, Mr. Obata, Japanese Minister to Peking, Councillor Yoshida, Secretary Kimura, of the Foreign Office, and Mr. Yabuchi, Chief of the Communications Bureau, and some other officials of the Ministry of Communications will, it is reported, attend the conference to be held in Peking in connection with the question of withdrawing Japanese post-offices from China.

GLOVES TARIFF

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 19.—The Board of Trade Committee of Inquiry on the fabric gloves question concluded its public sittings today.

The chief feature of the evidence was that of Mr. W. Pinkham, representing the fabric gloves manufacturers, who expressed the opinion that Lancashire could not seriously believe that the imposition of the duty would seriously affect the export of yarn to Germany as the Germans bought goods where they could obtain the best value for their money.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

July 20, 1922

Spot bar silver was down ⅝d and forward ¼d in London yesterday.

The New York price declined to 69⅝ cents and the London-New York cross rate to 445.

The official Sterling rate here was dropped to 3-5, the Gold Dollar rate to 76, the Yen rate raised to 63¼ and the other rates changed in proportion.

Our market here was steady throughout the morning with practically no variation in rates.

Business in Sterling as done at 3-5⅝ for all deliveries to December, and in Gold Dollars at 77⅝.

While there were good sellers at these rates there were on the other hand good buyers at 3-5⅞ and 77⅝ respectively.

In the afternoon the market was a shade steadier particularly for Sterling in which business was done at 3s. 5 11/16d., there being sellers at this rate at the close. Gold Dollars were unchanged.

There were very few bills offering today. Banks were quoting to buy four m-s Sterling bills at 3-5⅝ and Gold Dollar bills at 79¼.

America and the Continent sold silver in London yesterday and India bought at the close.

The market there as well as in New York is quoted as uncertain.

More Heart

BY CHARLES GRANT MILLER

THE one who is loved is the one who loves. The language best understood is that of the heart.

However admirable is a capable or brilliant mind, however enviable a skilled or art-kissed hand, something still more good and beautiful lies in a true and generous heart.

For while the head may be lacking of appreciation, and the hands underpaid for their dexterity, because of varying standards by which they are judged, the heart has the larger chance of being understood.

The main thing to be wished for is more heart—more heart in our work, more heart in our plans, more heart in our hopes, more heart in our play, and in our intercourse with the world around. There can never be too much. There is, alas, too little.

The tendency of the age is to make us hardhearted.

We live in whirl.

We can find little time for anything but our material interests.

And so we overlook the most practical things of all.

We haven't time for the real treasures of life.

Some are so keen on money-making that they will fully shut their hearts to any emotion that might stand in the way of success in business, no matter at what cost that success is attained.

Others are so hard pressed in the struggle for existence that their whole energy is taken up in the fight for a bare livelihood.

The world is so hard to them that it makes them hard to others.

Luxury, too, makes its worshippers hard.

A life devoted to frivolous amusement has a petrifying effect on the heart.

The gambling spirit binds an icy coating around the seat of kindly impulses and tender thoughts.

The need of these days is not greater opportunities for commerce and trade in dead matter so much as larger realisations of the possibilities latent in the fellowship of all mankind.

Material needs shape their own remedies. When commerce must be greatened, it is.

When waterways must be opened, they are.

These are the world's appetite, and, when hungry and thirsty, food and drink are sought and found.

The higher and gentler side of human nature is more modest and less insistent in its demands.

To make it part of our daily duty that no seeking of this kind remains unfulfilled is a nobler endeavor than the continual and overriding race for anything that can be classed as material riches.

The more heart we put into our daily dealings, the more true satisfaction and lasting reward do we obtain.

The wider our sphere of influence, the more care should we take that only good is reflected in it.

The narrower our sphere of life, the more heart we need to widen it.

And I hope the gentle compositor doesn't make it more Heat!

Vienna Today -:- By Marie Cecil Chomel

Vienna, June 1 (By Mail).—Today I lunched with one of the world's greatest scientists. Our meal cost one cent in American value. We ate in the dingy, smoky basement under a cheap restaurant. For fellow guests we had three hundred of the most famous scientists in Vienna and at the head of the table was a surgeon internationally famous. There were present many professors from the University of Vienna. They paid less than one penny each for their meal.

At my left sat an archeologist whose name is known wherever such matters are discussed. He slipped his single slice of bread into his pocket.

"This meal is the only food I have during the day," he said simply.

A distinguished, elderly man, whose face was chalk white, came into the mess hall. He carried a little bundle which he asked me to examine, the scientist with whom I had gone to the place acting as interpreter.

"He wants to sell his wife's embroidered towels and he thought you, being an American, might buy them. His wife is ill and they have no food. This man is a physician and before the war he was well to do, but his investments are of no value today. He has sold his furniture."

Incidents of this nature make up the life that goes on here under the surface—the life that the tourist never sees.

From all that has been written only a confused and contradictory story of the real situation can be gained. In a world of artificialities such as now exists in Vienna, the most startling contrasts and the most paradoxical situations are to be found. All of these have their part in any real picture of the life of the old Hapsburg capital, but any part considered alone is certain to give an entirely false impression.

Thus there are those who actually expect to find people lying dead in the streets and there are others who come here to have a "fling" because they think it is the gayest capital in Europe. Can this city be the gayest and the saddest, the most hopeless and the most carefree in the world at the same time?

It not only can be, but is. Any afternoon one can walk down the Kartnerstrasse, or the Graben, or the Ring and there see human wretches begging from the millionaire passersby—and there are many of each. In the evening the cabarets and other similar places can be found running full tilt, though one will probably have to stumble over some starving wretch to get in the door.

Yes, Vienna is a starving, dying city, but it is also a place of luxury and beauty and extravagance—the latter on the part of the profiteers.

The tourists, observing that life appears to be going on as gayly as ever, write home that the American public has been deceived. A little digging under the surface would prove to them that all of the parasites in Europe are living in Vienna today—that the good food in the restaurants comes in by the underground. There were said to be 50,000 illegitimate food purveyors in Vienna last year. Owing to the low value of the kronen the parasites can live here cheaper than in their own country. One hears every language in the cafes save German—the tongue of the Austrians.

In a raid on an all-night cafe 150 persons were taken, ten being Austrians. The rest represented every country in the world.

While the alien profiteers gorge on rich foods in the hotels, the community kitchens are feeding thousands of Austrians. The price paid for a meal, measured in terms of American values, is less than one cent. Still there are other thousands who cannot pay even that small price.

I know one charitable woman here who gives free meals to nearly 2,000 people every day. She begs and cajoles this money from the newly rich, and many gifts come to her from America.

There is attached to a Catholic church a priest who formerly taught in a large American college—at Boston. One-time pupils of this man have sent him large contributions to aid in the charity which he is carrying on, and through this means he has literally saved from starvation hundreds of families who had no other means of obtaining aid.

The Commonwealth Fund of New York has placed a fund at the disposal of the American Relief Administration to be used for food in aid of the intellectual classes—the scientists, lawyers, doctors and professors. This philanthropy is termed the professors' mess. The majority of the professors in the universities obtain here food sufficient to enable them to carry on their work.

Substantial aid also has been received from a community fund from Rochelser, N. Y., administered by the American Relief.

The Red Cross here provides essential clothing for 30,000 school teachers, who have found it impossible to do more than pay for sufficient food to maintain life. The professional people of this class rarely taste meat.

Scores of orphanages and apprentice homes would have been forced to close their doors long ago had it not been for the daily ration supplied by the American Relief.

Another relief agency is the Quaker group, which has been concentrating its efforts on infant feeding and nursing mothers. The Quakers also maintain an agency where is sold the handiwork of men and women who formerly belonged to the titled class and the professional ranks. Several hundred contributors are on this list, and the Quakers have established sales agencies in England, with the expectation, I am told, of extending their efforts to America.

From this outline of hunger conditions as they actually exist in Vienna it can be seen that the surface observations of tourists have no value, and serve only to confuse the minds of those who have been generous donors to the relief funds.

Vienna today has a population of nearly 1,000,000 in excess of what the present Austria can support at its capital. When Austria-Hungary was an empire of 55,000,000 it provided for an enormous governmental administrative and military population. Most of those who composed that class are still here. This superfluous population must find work or starve.

Vienna is not an industrial city, for nearly all the industries of the old empire were situated in what are now the secession states—Czecho-Slovakia, Jugo-Slavia, Rumania, Poland and Hungary. Many of the great producers were able to escape sharing in the disaster of Austria by becoming citizens of these states, even though they were of the Germanic race. Coal, oil, glass, woolens, cotton goods and nearly everything else consumed and sold in Vienna came from these countries, which are now independent and bitterly hostile in their attitude toward their former government.

Prohibition Cuts Alcohol Death Rate

The figures of the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the New York Health Department show that since prohibition went into effect decline in the alcoholic death rate has assumed extraordinary proportions. For comparison, it is considered fair to accept the year 1916 under the license system, since so many men were in military training and war activities in the two years following. In 1916, there were 690 deaths from alcohol in New York City; in 1920, 127 deaths, and in 1921, 141 deaths. This represents a decrease of 500 percent per annum. Life insurance figures show that, in 1917, the death rate due to alcoholism was 4.9 per hundred thousand policy holders, while in 1921, the ratio was 0.9 or only one fifth the figure for 1917. Figures for 1921 show a decided decrease in deaths due to apoplexy, heart disease and chronic nephritis. The death rate of all three diseases was at a lower rate than in any wet year.

KINGMAN & BROS.

How to Preserve the Teeth

In order to keep the teeth in a good condition scientific precaution must be taken. Through negligence, decay and numerous other affections such as tooth-ache, dental periostitis, esteo-periostitis, necrosis of the jaw, etc., may arise. During the process of ingestion, there are settled on the teeth some deposits of mineral and organic matters, called tartar, which possesses a morbid power of pressing the gum. As an inevitable result of the presence of this tartar, the teeth will become elongated and movable and will, by degrees, absorb away the enamel, leading ultimately to the decay and degeneration of the teeth. The tartar is so hard and resistant to the process of brushing that it cannot be scraped off except with dental instruments specially devised for that purpose.

Dr. KINGMAN offers to the public his service for preserving their teeth at an annual subscription Fee of $10.00 per head to be paid in advance.

The work to be done by Dr KINGMAN to the subscribers consist in:—

(1) Cleaning of the teeth quarterly.
(2) Filling with gold platinum alloy only, when the teeth present holes.
(3) Inspecting the teeth at any time at the desire of the subscribers.

Some Opinions Of Anatole France

From "The Opinions of Anatole France" recorded by Paul Gsell, and translated by Ernest Boyd (Knopf).

ON WOMEN

"Collectors are like lovers, passion make up for want of money. Beautiful women are often more deeply touched by the fervent and insistent prayers of poor swains than by the dazzling liberality of financiers rolling in wealth. However, for the conquest of women and masterpieces it is better to be both rich and passionate."

ON DECORATIONS

"A man with a decoration can wear a soft hat without incurring the humiliating contempt of the concierges. That, at least, is something. He need no longer be so punctilious about his appearance, and the stains on his waistcoat are overlooked. In short, the piece of ribbon is a substitute for benzine. This emblem may also be useful in case of a flagrant outrage on public morals. How could a police spy seize in his clutches a gentleman whose buttonhole is adorned with red? But, of course, this supposition is entirely gratuitous, for a man with a decoration is always a man of honor."

ON COMEDY

"When our venerable pedagogues used to comment upon the Knights of Aristophanes, they would carefully analyse the perabasis and point out the commutation, anapests, the macron. And they taught us that this play was a perfect example of the style known as Old Comedy. But you will readily conceive that it had other attractions for the sailors of Piraeus. What delighted them was to see Aristophanes grabbing Comrade Cleon by the seat of the trousers. The performance was punctuated with laughs and shouts and slaps."

ON DREAMERS

"I know very well that the dreamer is a person of little consequence beside the politician. The politician is the idol of the mob. He drags in his wake the whole tribe of those who seek favors. He is influential, celebrated, famous. He holds in his hands the destiny of the people. He leads them to prosperity or to ruin. He makes the laws, and that, more than anything else, seems to denote his power. To make laws, to draw up regulations which the crowd must obey, to set the limits beyond which no citizen has the right to go, is that not almost divine sovereignty? There is only one reservation to be made: that is, laws never regulate anything. When the authorities formulate a law it has long since passed into common usage."

ON TRUTH

"All really great men have the prime virtue of sincerity. They extirpate hypocrisy from their hearts; they bravely reveal their weaknesses, their doubts, their vices. They dissect themselves. They expose their bared souls, so that all their contemporaries may recognise themselves in this picture and reject the lies which corrupt their lives. They are courageous. They are not afraid to challenge prejudices. No power, civil, moral or immoral, can impose upon them."

ON GENIUS

"All great authors write badly. That is well known. At least, the pedants say so. Great writers are impetuous. The vigor of their vocabulary, the intensity of their style, the daring of their phrases, disconcert the pedants. To the pundits good writing apparently means writing according to rules. But born writers make their own rules, or rather make none. They change their manner at every moment, as inspiration dictates; sometimes they are harmonious, sometimes rugged, sometimes spirited. So, according to the common notion, they cannot write well."

ON SKEPTICS

"Skeptic! Skeptic! It is true they will still call me a skeptic. And for them that is the worst insult; but for me it is the finest praise. A skeptic! Why, that is what all the masters of French thought have been! Rebelais, Moliere, Voltaire, Renan—skeptics! All the loftiest minds of our race were skeptic, all those whom I tremblingly venerate, and whose most humble pupil I am. Skepticism! The word is made synonymous with negation and impotence. Yet our great skeptics were sometimes the most affirmative, and often the most courageous, of men. They denied only negations. . . . It would not be difficult to prove that those Frenchmen of genius who are called skeptics professed the most magnificent credo. Each one of them formulated some article of it. . . . Renan always remained a priest; all he did was to purify religion. He believed in the divine, in learning; he believed in the future of mankind. Thus all our skeptics were full of ardor, all strove to deliver their fellow-men from the chains that drag them down. In their own way they were saints."

Correspondence

SIDE-LIGHT ON THE JAIL-BREAK

Editor: THE CHINA PRESS.

Dear Sir,—The local papers in giving an account of the escape of the two prisoners from the American jail took the trouble to announce the religious affiliation of one of them. Lightner we are told is a "Hebrew", but we are left in the dark about the other prisoner. It is not yet known to which religious affiliation he belongs. Will you not help your readers, please? Why discriminate between a Hebrew and a non-Hebrew? If you must discriminate, then why don't you tell us to which religious affiliation Walter Rathenau, Germany's foreign minister belonged to? He, too, was a Hebrew. I have no desire to add more names to the list but, Mr. Editor, you cannot have it one way only. If you want to debit us with the bad ones you must equally credit us with the good ones. I plead for a square deal, no more and no less. I am, etc.,

Mentor.

Shanghai, July 20, 1922.

Editor's Note: Our correspondent is inclined to be sensitive where his own race and religion are concerned. But in this he does not differ from members of other races and religions. There was no use of giving the race and religion of Boyd as he had been recaptured. So far as Lightner is concerned, the description was issued by the authorities because the man was still at large. They told everything they knew about him, and inasmuch as the racial characteristics of the Jew are probably more distinctive than those of most other races, they would have erred had they omitted from their description the fact that the man is of that race.

Exchange Market

In their weekly exchange circular, Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows:

Exchange:—The London price of silver at 35½d. spot and 35⅝d. forward shows a decline of ⅛d. and ⅛d. respectively since this day last week. T.T. on London has remained officially unchanged throughout the week at 3s. 5½d. The market has been in a more or less lifeless state with very little business passing and rates have shown a sagging tendency. The New York-London rate has been slowly and steadily improving, the last quotation is 446½ and this fact has encouraged some speculative purchases of sterling, though operations have been on a very small scale. A late telegram from New York shews a marked improvement in the franc and lira, respective quotations being 51.70 and 92 to the pound sterling, said to be due to American purchases of Allied currencies. The market closes steady with T.T. on London offering at 3s. 5⅞d. and New York 77¾.

Our stocks of silver are reported as follows:

Sycee and Bar Silver Tls. 38,282,000, an increase of Tls. 1,585,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars [illegible] a decrease of $200,000.

Estimated value Tls. 80,495,000 as against Tls. 47,721,000 held at this time last year.

Boat Sent By Nanchang Mission Brings Refugees

(China Press Correspondence)

Nanchang, July 15.—The boat sent by the Nanchang M. E. Mission to rescue of mission workers up the Kan River returned yesterday with thirty refugees, practically all of the workers in the area. They arrived with barely the clothing upon their backs, having been robbed by the looters of all their possessions.

Pastor Lei of Siakiang, 300 li form Nanchang tells how that city paid for the folly of its chamber of commerce. It seems that this organisation possessed some old guns which they got out and put in the hands of some coolies instructing them to keep soldiers going up to the front out of the city.

A small boat with eight soldiers arrived and seeing twenty guns pointed in their direction surrendered, guns, ammunition, and everything they had, then they were bound and taken out into the river and dropped overboard. This was about the first of June.

Twenty days later two hundred boatloads of retreating soldiers came down upon the town. The story had leaked out. The people of the city surmising that it would be attacked and warned by the police fled just half an hour before the soldiers arrived. The loot of what was left of the city was systematic and complete.

SOLDIERS SHOOT OUT LIGHT

On July 10th Pastor Lei went back. He found only three men in the city, and says there are not ten people left of the twenty thousand said to live there. He went to what was left of his church and school and climbed up into the second floor to sleep. It was ten o'clock. He lit a lamp, but had no more than done so than there was a shot and the lamp went out.

He did not light another lamp but the shooting into his room went on all night. In the morning he left and made his way to Sinkan where he was taken onto the boat and brought to Nanchang.

At the time of the flight high water made exit difficult for many and the "old bible woman" did not get away. She is thought to have made her way after the looting, into the country but no word has been had from her. Water at the chapel was five feet over the floor.

PASTOR ROBBED

Pastor Teng of Sinkan 240 li south of Nanchang was the one reported missing. The soldiers arrived at Sinkan on June 22. About ten o'clock at night there was a knocking at the door, and Pastor Teng recognised the voice of one of his church members named Liu, who informed him that he was there on important business and alone.

Teng opened the door and found Liu held by two soldiers who pressed knives to each side of his throat as a slight incentive for him to speak as he was bidden. Other soldiers entered and demanded $600.

They were offered all the money on the premises but were not satisfied and told Teng they would kill him. He explained that that wouldn't help them find the money and finally they reduced their claims to $180 but with no more success.

Then they went through the house, taking watches and ornaments from the women, ripping up garments and smashing anything they did not care to use. After this they left, but returned the next day renewing their demands.

Teng managed to get out and fearing he would return with help they left again. That night Pastor Teng, his wife and five children, the youngest but a few months old, started out into the country. After walking most of the night they came to a place where they were allowed to stay.

Two days later Pastor Teng left his family in the country and returned to Sinkan. When the mission boat arrived he sent for his family and brought them to Nanchang.

Collision Trial To Hold Over One Year

(Eastern News Agency)
Tokio, July 19.—Mr. Takata, an attorney-at-law for the South Manchuria Railway Company, on the night of July 15 went to the s.s. Eastern Sailor to seize her, but the captain of the ship refused to comply with the request, putting her to sea.

Inasmuch as the ship is expected to arrive at Yokohama again in February of next year, the trial of the collision case has been decided to be held over until that time.

Mr. Senkichiro Hayakawa, President of the South Manchuria Railway Company, yesterday brought an action before the Yokohama local court against the Shipping Board of the United States, demanding of the latter the payment of compensation of damages to the amount of Y31,600.

He charges that the Eastern Sailor of the United States Shipping Board, which is now at anchor in the harbor of Yokohama, on March 22, collided with the Sakaki Maru chartered by the South Manchuria Railway in the lower reaches of the Whangpoo.

He claims an error in piloting the Eastern Sailor thereby causing a great damage to the Sakaki Maru, with the consequence that the latter was obliged to suspend her voyage for forty days.

Besides the foregoing, the Kaibo Gikai, the shipowner of the s.s. Sakaki Maru has also brought a suit against the United States Shipping Board, demanding compensation amounting to Y151,500.

Briton To Attempt Trans Pacific Flight

(Reuter's Service)
London, July 19.—Reuter's Agency is informed that Major Morgan, who was pilot-navigator with Mr. Raynham of the Martinsyde machine, which made the first attempt to fly the Atlantic in April 1919, cabled today to America his decision to attempt a flight over the Pacific from San Francisco to Sydney for the prize of £10,000, offered by Mr. Thomas Ince of Los Angeles.

Major Morgan hopes to leave San Francisco by the first week in October.

The flight will be via Honolulu, Samoa and Fiji, a total distance of 6,970 miles. He will be accompanied by Captain Haslam, late of the Australian Flying Corps, and a wireless operator.
